"THE AMERICAN EXPERIENCE"
STUDY IN NEW YORK CITY
FOR AUR JUNIORS & SENIORS

Study for a semester or summer in exciting New York City on the beautiful College of Staten Island (CSI) campus. CSI offers classes in the following: Anthropology; Applied Sciences; Biology; Business; Chemistry; Computer Science; Economics; Education; Engineering; English; History; Mathematics; Media Culture; Spanish and French; Chinese; Performing and Creative Arts; Philosophy; Political Science; Psychology and Sociology.

Program includes: tuition and fees, health insurance, homestays with host families, membership in CSI's Sports and Recreation Center, use of library facilities and computer laboratories, and welcome orientation. CSI staff will assist prospective students with the visa application process, but students are responsible for any visa or SEVIS fees. An optional "Explore New York" cultural package is available for semester-long programs.

Program dates for Summer : 4 week program: June
4 week program: July
8 week program: June and July

Program dates for Fall: August-December

Basic Program Cost (estimated):

4-Week-program: $2,930 - $4,730* (3-8 credits, proportionately)
8-Week Program: $3,980 - $5,780* (3-8 credits, proportionately)
Semester Program $9,870 - $12,030* (12-18 credits, proportionately)

* Prices and dates subject to change; prices exclude €100 AUR Summer Study Abroad Fee or 300 euro semester fee.

Requirements: 2.8 GPA and at least junior status at AUR
"Explore New York" optional cultural package: $400
Not included: Lunch, transportation costs, visa and SEVIS fees and incidentals.
Credit Card payment available

Deadline: Apply by March 15 for Summer
Apply by May 15 for Fall
Apply by November 15 for Spring

For more information contact: Prof. Kathleen Fitzsimmons, Director, AURA program:
k.fitzsimmons@aur.edu